State Agencies Sponsor 6th Annual Partners For Progress Summit

Dover - The Delaware Departments of Transportation, Natural Resources and Environmental Control, Correction, Education, and State are once again sponsoring the Annual Partners for Progress Summit held on Thursday, August 11, 2005, at the Terry Campus of Delaware Technical and Community College.

The Summit is an opportunity for state employees, the community, and members of the media to join Delaware Transit Corporation Executive Director Stephen Kingsberry; DNREC Secretary John Hughes; Department of Correction Commissioner Stan Taylor, Jr.; Department of Education Deputy Secretary Dr. Nancy Wilson; and Secretary of State Harriet Smith Windsor for a half day of workshops and discussion on emerging issues in the workplace. K.C. Keeler, Head Coach of the University of Delaware football team, will deliver this year's keynote address. Diversifying Your Personal Portfolio is the theme of this year's Summit. Participants can attend two of the eight workshops offered. Topics include: Network to Your Full Potential, Disability Etiquette, Supporting Your Child's Higher Education, Financial Planning for the Rest of Your Life, Understanding the Other Gender, The Power of Listening, Humor in the Workplace, and Time Management.

The Summit, held in the Educational Technology Building on Terry Campus in Dover, starts at 7:30 a.m. with registration and a continental breakfast. The program begins at 8:00 a.m. Those wishing to attend the Partners for Progress Summit can register online at: www.deldot.gov. Directions to the campus and additional information about the Summit are also available on the web site. The Summit is free to attendees.
